EXCHAMSIKS RIVER

Unusual Conditions:

MAINLAND Area: 4 Location: OTHER LOWER SKEENA Alias 1: EXCHAMSIKS RIVER Aboriginal Name 1: Aboriginal Name 2: Alias 2: 11:20 Affiliation: North Coast Conservation and Protection Date: September 2,2009 StartTime 10:50 StopTime Observers: Scott Trent Primary Mode: Helicopter Purpose: Spawner Counts Target Species: Sx Co Pk Cm Ck Other Secondary Mode: Distance Inspected: (Meters) Fish distribution: Section Inspected: Up to second cascade (N54 20.211/W129 34.613). Scattered throughout. Start Boundary Stop Boundary Sec Sec Deg Min Min Sec Deg Min Sec Deg Min Deg Lat / Long: Lat / Long: Ε UTMs: Zone 9 UTMs: 9 Ε Zone Windy: No C Sky Conditions: Water Conditions: Temp. Bankfull Mormal Brightness. Bright Colour: Glacial Silt Stream Visibilit Medium Precipitation: None SOCKEYE соно PINK CHUM CHINOOK OTHER N.O. N.O. N.O. A.P. N.O. N.O. Adult Presence Adult Live Holding Outside Stream 60 Holding 6 Spawning Observed Total 66 Estimated Total 75 New Since Last Inspection Estimate Reliability Medium Fish Countability Good Adult Dead Observed Estimated % Pre-Spawn Mortality Jack Presence N.I. N.I. N.I. Jack Live Observed Estimated Active Spawning Estimated Active Spawning Date Estimated Escapement To Date Rationale for Estimated Adult Live: General Comments: Some of the traditional chum sites had zero chum in them. This was also verified on various boat patrols throughout the month of September. Although water quality on some dyas was not good, some of the side streams stayed clear and never showed any chum

Stream Inspection Log Printed: 05/01/2010 2:20:36 PM